

The Fox

The fox went out on a chilly night
He prayed to the moon to give him light
He had many a mile to go that night
Before he reached the town-o
Town-o, town-o
Before he reached the town-o

He ran 'til he came to a great big pen
The ducks and the geese were kept therein
"A couple of you will grease my chin
Before I leave this town-o
Town-o, town-o"
"A couple of you will grease my chin
Before I leave this town-o"

(4th/5th)

He grabbed a grey goose by the neck
Threw a duck behind his back
He didn't mind the
(3rd) QUACK QUACK QUACK
(All) And the legs all dangling down-o
Down-o, down-o
He didn't mind the quack quack quack
And the legs all dangling down-o

(3rd)

The old grey woman jumped out of bed
Out the window she cocked her head, cryin'
(4th/5th) JOHN, JOHN THE GREY GOOSE IS GONE
(All) And the fox is on the town-o
Town-o, town-o
John, John the grey goose is gone
And the fox is on the town-o.

(Body Percussion Section - 4th stomp, 5th clap, 3rd pat)

He ran till he came to his cozy den
There were the little ones eight, nine, ten Saying "Daddy! Daddy! Better go back again
It must be a mighty fine town-o."

The fox and his wife without any strife
Cut up the goose with a fork and a knife
And they never had such a supper in their life
And the little ones chewed on the bones-o
Bones-o, bones-o
they never had such a supper in their life
And the little ones chewed on the bones-o

(Short body percussion)

And the little ones chewed on the bones-o!
